Thanks Russell.

We're pulling our COs out of the heavy-protest areas now, and have advised that they should only re-enter as part of coordinated access with OPS.

Thanks for your support.

Hello,

I just left MHP, the crowd was getting more and more agitated and started to yell and rage at me. Leaving the scene slowly and safely through the crowd, I started getting swarmed and they wouldn't let me leave, I had to turn on the lights and sirens to make room for me to leave. I am not going back there. I've never feared for my safety as much I did in that moment.

Hello everyone. Update confederation Park.

Everything at the park is under control. Security guard on site, barricades around the park and monuments are good. No issues at the moment.

I got a small glimpse of the war monument. Seems to be a very large crowd of protesters on the monument property. Heavy police presence in the area and very large amounts of protesters in the core.

Thanks

Alex.

Hi Pat\lan,

Alex was on his way back to MHP, he's currently on the highway (bumper to bumper) and will be taking a look at Confed, as he can get here much faster than I can. He will report his observations.

Thanks,

Hi Pat,

I just spoke to Max and the report from the security officer there is that all is quiet.

Max, seeing as you're solo in the core right now, do you mind heading over there to have a quick look?

Note that the fence is down at the war memorial and stacked nicely next to it. The crowd there is consistent.

Cheers

Hi Maxime, got the info from pspc that some protesters tried to remove the fences around the war memorial (there is some Veterans in the group apparently). Police went there to restore peace. Can somebody have a look at the monuments that are fenced in confed park? Aboriginal vet monument + Korean war monument. Thanks.

Objet : Re: Preparation - Event in Major's Hill - Saturday Feb 12 @ 11am

Hello all,

Update on the situation. There was a group at MHP (20-30 people) dancing with speakers, but they seem to have moved on. There's been over a 1000 people walk through the park from Quebec to Wellington, and is an on-going stream of people. Traffic seems to be jammed a lot more today than last week, and it making increasingly more difficult for us to travel anywhere near the core. There's about x100 new passenger vehicles parked on SJAM west bound from booth to Slidell.

Thank you,

Good weekend all,

Nothing to report at MHP for now. We've seen about 400 protesters use the park to get to Wellington, but no activity in the actual park.
I will update periodically.

Hi all,

We have word that there is looking to be a small unsanctioned event in MHP this Saturday.

Pietro/ Ivana, please have a CO assigned to MHP as of 10h30 for the duration of the event (event info in link below).

M-A, please have your contractor today/ tomorrow do the following at MHP as prep for this weekend:

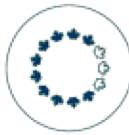

- Ensure that the gate off of St Patrick is secured at all times when not in use (this includes when they are in the park doing their rounds)
- Ensure that the bollards at the secondary access off of St Patrick are all in good condition
- Place 2 to 3 Confed Blvd planters at each of the three Mackenzie Ave access points, in order to ensure that vehicles cannot access the park

Let me know if you need any additional info.

As always, thanks for help!

Cheers

Hi Dominique,

Do we know how much traction this event is getting on social media?

I ask as a search on Twitter for the Convoy Crusades account gives no results – appears their only presence is on FB.
